Stepping Stones

serves families from 9 a.m. to noon Monday through Thursday, and has yet to determine if volunteers will need to work Friday hours based on any increased need. They are open every week, except for the third week of the month when the nearby food pantry Warehouse is serving families. Essential workers only who may not be able to get to Stepping Stones during their early morning hours can make a special appointment by calling Livingston at 937-244-1251, or by e-mailing PastorChris4031@yahoo.com.

Volunteers are modifying their procedure during the coronavirus outbreak by allowing people to stay in their car and fill out a checklist of available items. The checklist allows people to select one item from categories such as condiments, beverages, meat, vegetables, breakfast and dry goods. Then, they can sort through a variety of breads and sweets that are set up on tables outside the church while they wait for their items to be pulled for them.

Caring Kitchen

They are also doing food boxes but you have to call to make an appointment 937-653-8443. They will meet you at the door to give them to you. They are on lockdown.
